LICENSE AGREEMENT

License of publishing rights

I hereby grant to the Journal (for employee authors, the employer grants) an exclusive publishing and distribution license in the manuscript identified above and any supplemental tables, illustrations or other information submitted therewith that are intended for publication as part of the manuscript (the "Article") in all forms and media (whether now known or hereafter developed), throughout the world, in all languages, for the full term of copyright, effective when and if the Article is accepted for publication. This license includes the right to provide the Article in electronic and online forms and systems and to enforce the rights granted by this license against third parties. With respect to supplemental data that I wish to make accessible either through a link in the Article or on a site or through a service of the Journal, the Journal shall be entitled to publish, post, make available and link to such data on a non-exclusive basis, and further permit indexing and archiving.

Scholarly communication rights (see 'Definitions' clause below)

I understand that I retain the copyright in the Article and that no rights in patents, trademarks or other intellectual property rights are transferred to the Journal. Further and notwithstanding the exclusive publishing and distribution license granted above, I understand that I retain the right to use the Preprint, Accepted Author Manuscript and the Published Journal Article in accordance with the terms of the CC BY-NC-ND license and for Personal Use. I understand that the Journal is exclusively authorized to make or license commercial use of the Article.

User rights

The publisher will apply the Creative Commons Attribution-Noncommercial-NoDerivative Works 3.0 Unported License (CC-BY-NC-ND) to the Article for the purposes of publication in the journal on an Open Access basis. For further information, see <http://www.elsevier.com/about/open-access/open-access-options>.

The CC-BY-NC-ND license allows users to copy and distribute the article, provided this is not done for commercial purposes and further does not permit the Article to be changed or edited in any way, and that the author is attributed and is not represented as endorsing the use made of the work. The full details of the license are available at <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-nd/3.0/legalcode>.

Reversion of rights

Articles may sometimes be accepted for publication but later rejected in the publication process, even in some cases after public posting in "Articles in Press" form, in which event all rights will revert to the author (see <http://www.elsevier.com/locate/withdrawalpolicy>).

Revisions and addenda

I understand that no revisions, additional terms or addenda to this License Agreement can be accepted without the Journal's express written consent.

Note: authors at institutions that place restrictions on publishing agreements or that assert an institutional right to distribute or provide access to the works of institutional authors, must obtain an express waiver from those institutions releasing the author from such restrictions to enable the acceptance of this License Agreement.

Copyright Notice

The publisher shall publish and distribute the Article with the appropriate copyright notice in the name of the author(s)/employer where applicable.

Author Representations/Ethics and Disclosure

I affirm the Author Representations noted below, and confirm that I have reviewed and complied with the relevant Instructions to Authors, Ethics in Publishing policy, and Conflicts of Interest disclosure. Please note that some journals may require that all co-authors sign and submit Conflicts of Interest disclosure forms. I am also aware of the publisher's policies with respect to retractions and withdrawal (<http://www.elsevier.com/locate/withdrawalpolicy>).

For further information see the publishing ethics page at <http://www.elsevier.com/publishingethics> and the journal home page.

Author Representations

- The Article I have submitted to the journal for review is original, has been written by the stated authors and has not been published elsewhere.
- The Article has not been and will not be submitted for review to another journal while under review by this journal and, if accepted for publication by this journal, will not be submitted to any other journal.
- The Article contains no libellous or other unlawful statements and does not contain any materials that violate any personal, proprietary or other rights of any other person or entity.

- I have obtained written permission from copyright owners for any excerpts from copyrighted works that are included and have credited the sources in my Article.
- If I am using any personal details or images of patients, research subjects or other individuals, I have obtained all consents required by applicable law and complied with the publisher's policies relating to the use of such images or personal information. See <http://www.elsevier.com/patientphotographs> for further information.
- If the Article was prepared jointly with other authors, I have informed the co-author(s) of the terms of this License Agreement and that I am signing on their behalf as their agent, and I am authorized to do so.

Funding agencies

The publisher posts information on funding agencies and arrangements that the publisher has made with such bodies at <http://www.elsevier.com/fundingbodyagreements>. I understand that documents can be downloaded from this site to help me comply with certain agency requirements.

For information on the publisher's access policies, please see <http://www.elsevier.com/access>.

DEFINITIONS

Accepted Author Manuscript

Author's version of the manuscript of an Article that has been accepted for publication and which may include any author-incorporated changes suggested through the processes of submission processing, peer review, and editor-author communications. Accepted Author Manuscripts should not include other publisher value-added contributions such as copy-editing, formatting and (if relevant) pagination, and should include the Appropriate Bibliographic Citation and a link to the final publication (generally through the relevant DOI).

Appropriate Bibliographic Citation

Authors posting the Accepted Author Manuscript online should later add a citation for the Published Journal Article indicating that the Article was subsequently published, and may mention the journal title provided they add the following text at the beginning of the document:

"NOTICE: this is the author's version of a work that was accepted for publication in <Journal title>. Changes resulting from the publishing process, such as peer review, editing, corrections, structural formatting, and other quality control mechanisms may not be reflected in this document. Changes may have been made to this work since it was submitted for publication. A definitive version was subsequently published in PUBLICATION, [VOL#, ISSUE#, (DATE)] DOI#"

Personal Use

Use by an author in the author's classroom teaching (including distribution of copies, paper or electronic), distribution of copies to research colleagues for their personal use, use in a subsequent compilation of the author's works, inclusion in a thesis or dissertation, preparation of other derivative works such as extending the Article to book-length form, or otherwise using or re-using portions or excerpts in other works (with full acknowledgment of the original publication of the Article).

Preprint

Author's own write-up of research results and analysis that has not been refereed, nor had any other value added to it by a publisher (such as formatting, copy editing, and the like).

Published Journal Article

The definitive final record of published research that appears or will appear in the journal and embodies all value-adding publisher activities including copy-editing, formatting and (if relevant) pagination.
